CONSULTANT: SUPPORT ECONOMIC AND MANAGEMENT CONSULTANCY: 2021-PRESENT.

Duties and responsibilities:

Participate in procuring and implementing the consultancy and research work of the Office and undertake translation work with the sister office - Support for Translation Services- located at the Same premises.

PLANNING EXPERT, THE SUPREME COUNCIL FOR PLANNING, OMAN

24/2/ 2006 31/12/2020.

1. Duties &Responsibilities

- Contributing to the preparation of Sectorial Plans and Investment projects of the Productive Sectors (Industry, Agriculture, Trade & Tourism, Oil, Gas and Productive Services)
- Monitoring and evaluation of Sectorial plan implementation & reporting on annual performance
- Finding solutions for the different challenges faced by development strategies in the Sultanate,
- Review, assess and comment on the specialized studies on productive sectors,
- Undertake research and make studies on productive sectors and contribute to preparation of economic diversification studies,
- Provide training for Omani personnel.

2. Carrying out the above-listed and other duties entailed the writing of a large number of memoranda, briefs, studies, reviews and commentaries ; also participating in numerous meetings, committees and study groups related to work in almost all Omani economic sectors. In particular I participated in the preparation and execution of the two Rallies organized by the Ministry of National Economy on the Sustainable Development of the Agricultural Sector and Regulating its Labour market held under the auspices of the Royal Tour in Samail (2007) and Ibri (2009) respectively and in both rallies the General Directorate for the Development of Productive sectors was the focal directorate. I also participated in Tanfeeth program in 2017 in the industrialization cluster. All work related to my job was carried out either in English or Arabic and more often than not involved translation between the two languages.

EXAMINATIONS

UNDERGRADUATE & POSTGRADUATE

Set the exam papers and marked them and sat in almost all examiners’ boards regarding all the above listed courses I taught at both graduate and undergraduate levels. Acted as internal examiner for all the post graduate dissertations I supervised and for many others supervised by other faculty members within and outside the university of Khartoum of which two were doctoral theses.

PROFESSIONAL

I have set a number of test questions for candidates competing to take job positions in the Ministry of National Economy of the Sultanate of Oman and have been member in a number of interview committees to select new staff and TAs intending to join the Department of Economics u. of k. and the Department of Economics and Quantitative Methods of Sudan International University.

SUPERVISION OF RESEARCH

UNDERGRADUATE

Throughout my periods of service in the University of Khartoum and the Sudan International University I supervised not less (if not more) than 150 research project papers of undergraduate students.
